

Hadeel Abouhasira

ASSOCIATE

(615) 850-8641
hadeel.abouhasira@wallerlaw.com

Assistant: Heidi M. Dunn
(615) 850-8460
heidi.dunn@wallerlaw.com

511 Union Street, Suite 2700
Nashville, TN 37219
615.244.6380
615.244.6804

A business immigration attorney, Hadeel Abouhasira is a trusted advisor to multi-national clients in all aspects of U.S. immigration law. She assists employers in the manufacturing, logistics, healthcare, and information technology industries with a wide range of immigration matters required to build and manage competitive workforces. Her experience includes assisting international clients with U.S. operations in managing a wide range of matters at the intersection of employment and immigration law, including: B-1 business visitor visas, E-2 treaty investor visas, EB-1 multinational manager petitions, H-1B specialty occupation petitions, J-1 waivers for physicians subject to the foreign residence requirement, L-1A/L-1B intracompany transfer visas, R-1 religious worker visas, TN (USMCA), consular processing, labor certification (PERM), I-9 compliance and E-Verify counseling and training. She also has experience assisting clients with PERM audits and Requests for Evidence, as well as navigating travel restrictions and visa backlogs.

Before her time at Waller, Hadeel represented clients in a wide variety of sectors as a business immigration associate for the New York office of Fragomen, Del Rey, Bernsen & Loewy and at Williams Mullen in Richmond, Virginia.

EDUCATION

- J.D., University of Virginia School of Law, 2015
- B.A., magna cum laude, Virginia Commonwealth University, 2012
- Employment Law Certificate, Cornell University, 2021

BAR ADMISSIONS

- Virginia

RECOGNITIONS

Style Weekly's Top 40 Under 40 Award (2018)
Virginia Business Legal Elite, Immigration Law (2019, 2020, 2022)

Super Lawyers, Rising Stars (2022)