Ashleigh is known for going the extra mile to ensure transactions reach successful closings. As a partner in the firm and as CEO of Clear Diligence, Ashleigh leads a team of industry veterans who provide customized diligence services through a multi-tiered review process — all with the goal of saving clients time and money.

Diligent and dedicated to helping clients achieve their objectives, Ashleigh Hall VanLandingham is known for going the extra mile to ensure transactions reach successful closings. Ashleigh has nearly a decade of experience representing healthcare companies, manufacturers, and private equity firms in strategic acquisitions, joint ventures, and dispositions. Ashleigh enjoys the complexity of transactional work and the challenge of bringing together all the elements of a deal. She has represented specialty physician practices in sales to strategic acquirers and private equity firms, healthcare providers in joint ventures with physicians, and investor-owned health systems in strategic acquisitions and dispositions.

In her role as CEO of Clear Diligence, Ashleigh focuses on anticipating the needs of the acquirer's transaction team and ensures access to critical information early in the deal process.

Clients value Ashleigh's experience gained as outside counsel in a wide range of complex transactional matters and her insight into the challenges faced by corporate legal teams gained as a member of an in-house law department. Prior to joining Waller, Ashleigh gained experience in the Washington, D.C. office of Akin Gump and with Bose McKinney & Evans, LLP in Indianapolis.
